

Fine Arts Staff Adds Teachers

Six new faculty members will join the teaching staff of the Division of Fine Arts at El Camino College this fall, according to Harold Wenstrom, dean of the division.

For one new instructor it will mean returning to his Alma Mater. Thomas Owens, who will teach music this semester, received his A.A. degree from El Camino, then transferred to UCLA where he received both his B.A. and M.A. degrees. He is a resident of Redondo Beach.

Teaching in the fields of speech and theater arts will be William R. Buck and Peter Henderson. Buck, who presently resides in Pacific Palisades, has taught at Santa Monica schools and at Grossmont High School. He has a B.S. degree from Northwest State University and a M.A. from UCLA.

HENDERSON, formerly with the faculty of Montebello High School and a former director of the Montebello Light Opera Company, received his B.A. from Stanford University and his M.A. from California State College at Los Angeles.

Nathan Lilienthal, who taught last year at Mt. San Jacinto Junior College in Beaumont will teach speech and debate. He received his A.A. and B.A. degrees from UCLA and his M.A. from the University of Southern California.

MISS YVONNE C. Scarpitta and Rodman de la Cruz will teach in the field of art this fall. Miss Scarpitta, a former part-time instructor at El Camino, received her A.A., B.A. and M.A. degrees from UCLA.
